

Erin Hinson

VP of Research Development, Abbey Research
Telephone: (412) 537 - 4016 Email: ehinson@abbey-research.com

Academic Qualifications

PhD | Irish Studies (History and Anthropology) | Queen's University Belfast
MA | Irish Studies (History and Anthropology) | Queen's University Belfast
BA | History of Art and Architecture | University of Pittsburgh

Professional Experience

Vice President of Research Development | Abbey Research
Resident Coordinator | CIEE, Belfast, Northern Ireland
Independent Academic Consultant | Queen's University Belfast
Program Facilitator | Duke Internship Program, Northern Ireland

Publications

'Crafting identities: prison artefacts and place-making in pre and post-ceasefire Northern Ireland', in Svašek, M. and Komarova, M. (eds.) The Poetics and Politics of Place-making in Northern Ireland. Oxford: Berghahn Books, forthcoming.

Recent Speaking Engagements

American Conference for Irish Studies | Institute of Irish Studies Seminar Series, Queen's University Belfast | Space, Movement, and Conflict Conference, Queen's University Belfast | Narratives of Peace and Conflict International Conference, Liverpool Hope University | Anthropological Association of Ireland Annual Conference, University College Cork

Expertise & Experience

Public Speaking | Academic Consulting | Project Development and Implementation | Intercultural Communication | Prison and Identity | Conflict Management and Trauma | Art History | Creative Expression | Irish History and Anthropology | Northern Irish Historical and Contemporary Socio-Politics | Study Abroad Advising and Mentoring | Marketing and Recruitment Strategies

Available for Speaking and Consulting Engagements Worldwide